

Survey for Mothers' House Concert

The planning committee hopes to collect interesting facts about all of us (primarily in connection with motherhood, maternal ancestors, etc.), and share some with the audience in short announcements during the concert. Susan has volunteered to collect this information. These are the questions we have thought of. PLEASE tell us anything you want, anything you think people might be interested in. Take your time and let the thoughts percolate.

Your name _____

Where were you born? _____

Number of children (incl step) _____ grandchildren _____ greatgrandchildren _____

If your family sang or made music together, where/how? (e.g., on car trips, on Sunday afternoons on the porch, in a performing group called...)

Your mother's name _____

Where was she born? _____ What year? _____

Number of children your mother gave birth to _____

If your mother worked outside the home, what did she do? _____

How far did your mother go in school? _____

Her favorite song _____

If your mother was musical:

What instruments did she play? _____

If she sang, where? (church choir, community chorus, Broadway, strip joint....)

Any other organized / group musical activity (e.g., town marching band)

Your grandmothers' names _____

Where were they born? _____

Number of children each gave birth to _____

How far did they go in school? _____

If they worked outside the home, what did they do? _____

How far did they go in school? _____

Favorite song(s) _____

If either grandmother was musical:

What instruments did she play? _____

If she sang, where? (church choir, community chorus, Broadway, strip joint....)

Any other organized / group musical activity (e.g., town marching band)

Any and all interesting facts about your maternal ancestors or you: e.g., Lucy is the 7th in 8 generations of Lucys; Shirley's great grandmother Sadie was the first woman to run for public office in Franklin County (Secretary of the Poor — she lost); Vivian and Tesia are mother and daughter....

Please return this survey to Susan BY MONDAY, APRIL 14. Thanks!