TO PLANT A TREE IS TO PLANT HOPE

Even if I knew that tomorrow the world would go to pieces, I would still plant my apple tree.

— Martin Luther

The trees the Chorus is offering are natural hybrids of red and silver maples, also called Freeman Maples. They have outstanding autumn color and are great shade trees.

This is a large and fast-growing type of tree, so choose your location carefully. It is best in full sun. It prefers rich, well drained soils but it is fairly tolerant to heavy soils and will tolerate dry or wet neutral sites. It's considered "urban tolerant" but it is not very tolerant of high acid soils.

If you can't use the tree, leave it for others. Any trees not adopted will be donated to local schools and/or environmental organizations.

A few good reasons to plant trees:

- 🍁 Trees combat climate change. In one year, an acre of mature trees absorbs the amount of carbon dioxide produced by a car driven 26,000 miles.
- 🍁 Trees clean the air and cool your neighborhood.
- 🍁 Trees can reduce your cooling costs. Three strategically-placed trees can reduce air conditioning by 50%.
- 🍁 Trees provide a canopy for wildlife habitat.
- 🍁 Trees mark the seasons.
- 🍁 Trees can block things and increase property values.

"The best time to plant a tree is twenty years ago. The second best time is now."

The lyrics of The Tree of Peace were adapted from the Quaker poem O Brother Man by John Greenleaf Whittier (1807-1892):

O, my sister and my brother,
all who walk upon the earth,
fold to your hearts each other.
Where mercy dwells, the peace of the Lord is there.

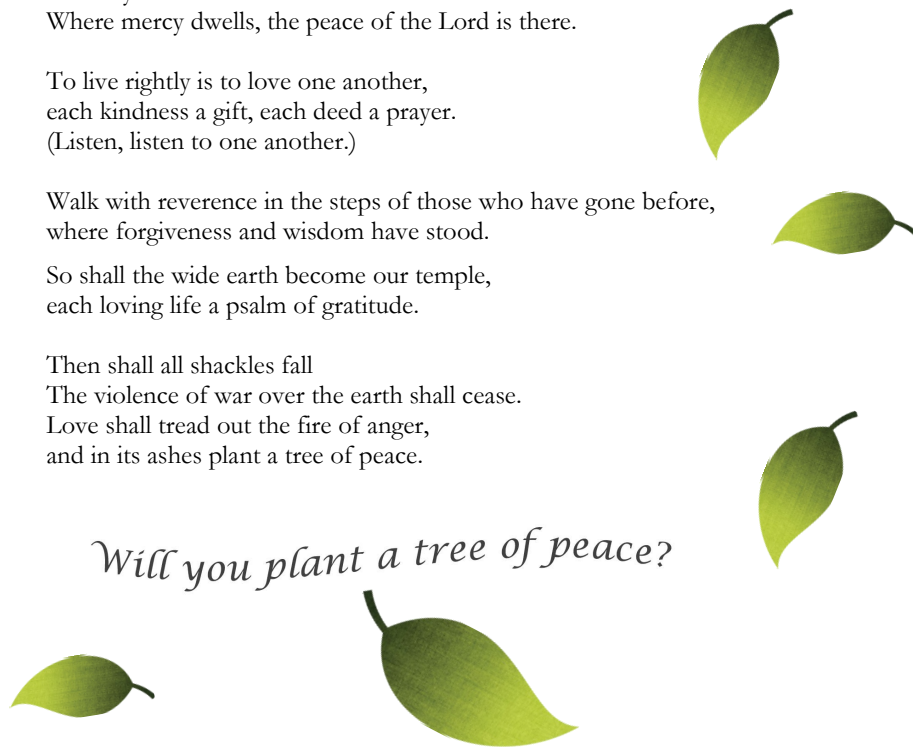

To live rightly is to love one another,
each kindness a gift, each deed a prayer.
(Listen, listen to one another.)

Walk with reverence in the steps of those who have gone before, where forgiveness and wisdom have stood.

So shall the wide earth become our temple,
each loving life a psalm of gratitude.

Then shall all shackles fall
The violence of war over the earth shall cease.
Love shall tread out the fire of anger,
and in its ashes plant a tree of peace.

Will you plant a tree of peace?

Song notes ...

African Processional was translated from Swahili: Welcome, my friend. You are so wonderful. Always remember me and I will remember you.

Gate Gate is a setting of a Buddhist mantra. “Gate” means gone, “paragate” means gone all the way to the other shore, “parasamgate” means everyone gone over to the other shore and “bodhi svaha” is a hallelujah.

Give Us Hope was part of a project focusing on children. The composer was inspired by words of Martin Luther King, Jr. asking if music can be used as a bridge to address the issues of overcoming the social problems of childhood.

Prayer of the Children was written when the composer felt frustration about the horrendous civil war and ethnic cleansing taking place in the former country of Yugoslavia, a place where he had lived. He wanted to capture what the Bosnian, Serbian and Croatian children struggling to live in this difficult time might be feeling. The Croatian at the end of the song can be translated as “Can you hear all the children’s prayers? Can you hear the prayer of the children?”

Iraqi Peace Song is adapted from a lullaby sung by women. The song contains an English interpretation of the original lyrics, rather than a direct translation. It was originally arranged by a Norwegian who traveled to Iran, where public singing for women is forbidden unless audience and performers are all women. The cello part was originally written for an oud, a pear-shaped Middle Eastern stringed instrument.

The lyrics of Song of the Universal are excerpted from the poem by Walt Whitman (1819-1892). The composer was inspired by Whitman’s “unabashed optimism, exuberance and confidence in our deeper humanity.”

Come, said the Muse,
Sing me a song no poet yet has chanted.
Sing me the Universal.

In this broad Earth of ours,
Amid the measureless grossness and the slag,
Enclosed and safe within its central heart,
Nestles the seed Perfection.

By every life a share, or more or less,
None born but it is born—concealed or unconcealed,
the seed is waiting.

Give me O God to sing that thought!
Give me—give him or her I love—this quenchless faith
In thy ensemble. Whatever else withheld, withhold not from us,
Belief in plan of Thee enclosed in Time and Space;
Health, peace salvation universal.

All, all for immortality!
Love, like the light, silently wrapping all!
Nature’s amelioration blessing all!

Welcome . . .

Welcome to our Spring Concert, “Plant a Tree of Peace.” That is exactly what we want you to do. Tonight, we focus on the songs that inspire all of us to always strive for peace. As a way to dedicate ourselves to this great purpose, we invite you to pick up a seedling this evening, plant it and give it new life tomorrow.

Tonight you will be enjoying a variety of music accompanied by an ensemble of talented musicians. We are delighted to be at Trindle Spring Lutheran Church for the first time. Thank you, Trindle Spring, for hosting us and for the quilt that church members provided for the raffle. We hope to perform here often, where our own Artistic Director Jordan Markham is the Director of Music. And thanks to our second home at the welcoming Unitarian Universalist Church in York. We love singing for you.

I thought that last year was the greatest year for the Chorus, as we celebrated 21 years of bringing you the best we have. This year, however, after four long years of fundraising, Pancake Breakfasts and Rummage Sales, Spaghetti Dinners and countless hours working at Farm Show Complex concession stands, the Chorus will participate in one of the largest choral events held anywhere, the international GALA Festival in Denver, Colorado. GALA is the Gay and Lesbian Association of Choruses, and we will be among the 6,000 singing there July 2-6. This is a wonderful opportunity to show our musicianship to other singers, but also to learn and be inspired as no other experience can do. Our brothers from the Harrisburg Gay Men’s Chorus will be there as well.

We recognize that much work goes on behind the scenes to keep the Womyn’s Chorus going strong. To everyone who has helped, my deep gratitude for all the time and effort you give to this Chorus.

As all arts groups, we want to add to our family. Please join us - for the love of singing - as volunteer, donor, board member or participant. We promise that you will find your voice and enjoy new friends. I wish you a wonderful spring and summer.

Mark your calendars for Womyn’s Chorus events in 2016; you don’t want to miss a single one.

Cynthia Swanson
Board President
